The Autism Cares Foundation recognizes PharMethod, Inc. by awarding them its first ever "Corporate Recognition Award"

Trevose, PA, May 18 – The Autism Cares Foundation, an organization whose primary focus revolves around improving the life experiences for children and young adults with autism today, recently recognized PharMethod CEO David Kovalcik, along with David's Bridal CEO - Mr. Bob Huth, Petroleum Recycling Corporation CEO - Ms. Christine Paul, TayganPoint Consulting Group CEO - Joy Taylor, and several other companies with its first ever Corporate Recognition Award.

The award, presented on May 2, 2011 during the 2nd Annual Autism Cares Foundation Auction and Gala, was a show of appreciation to those corporate partners whose "contributions help the organization provide an environment that enriches the life experiences of an individual with autism whereby he/she can engage in the type of play and other activities that other children enjoy". Over the years, corporate contributions have ranged in size and type from monetary, to auction items, to equipment donations, to other in kind gifts. A statement provided by AutismCares reads, "With ongoing support, corporate partners help to create an on-going calendar of events and activities that children
